

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives enjoy a long, proud tradition of meeting their responsibilities to the citizens of this state while upholding the virtues represented by the "Glory of Missouri": Knowledge, Liberty, Equality, Law, Justice, Fraternity, Education, Progress, Honor, Truth, Virtue, Temperance, Enterprise, and Charity; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" virtues were engraved in the House Chamber of the State Capitol in the early 1920s under the direction of the Decorating Commission with the inscription: "All the foregoing human qualities bind into one theme, the Glory of Missouri because no people attain these virtues unless they are great."; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" Award was created to encourage the values held by the early leaders of Missouri and to recognize those standards as exemplified in our schools and communities by this state's young people who are the future of Missouri; and

Whereas, Amie Marie Murphy, a student at Rockwood South Middle School in Fenton, has been selected to receive the "Glory of Missouri" Award for her accomplishments in the area of CHARITY as defined by Webster's dictionary in 1926: "More generally, love; benevolence good will; affection an act or feeling of affection or benevolence. Charity is therefore a habit of good will in the soul, which disposes us to the love, assistance, and relief of mankind, especially of those who stand in need of it."; and

Whereas, the daughter of David and Kathy Murphy, Amie Marie is a compassionate young lady who considers it important to assist others in need and does so on a daily basis; and

Whereas, Amie demonstrates much patience for her fellow classmates and finds the time to get personally involved in the preparation of the Rockwood South yearbook:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in commending Amie Marie Murphy for her noteworthy achievements in the pursuit of CHARITY and in congratulating her at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amie Marie Murphy, as a mark of our esteem for her.
